

Citrus Crush: Lovefresh Body Goodies Pink Grapefruit & Tangerine Lotion

by JANINE on 22 JULY 2010

There's a good chance I'm a bit greedy. I want more. More scent. Lovefresh Body Goodies Pink Grapefruit & Tangerine Lotion ($18) smells so perfectly of a juicy mix of pink grapefruit and sunny tangerine that I can't get enough of its fragrance. Its fairly subtle fragrance, darnit.

My smooth, velvety soft skin is pretty decent consolation, though. A 97-per-cent natural blend of grapeseed, avocado and jojoba oils, shea butter, aloe, silk amino acids, glycerine and what seems to be a wee hit of silicone, the lotion sinks quickly into skin without a trace of stickiness, even after repeated slatherings because I'm obsessed with the scent. Er — one application is sufficient to make skin happy.

Made in Canada, the Lovefresh Body Goodies line includes soaps, body wash, scrubs, body butter and lip balms, in a variety of fragrances such as Lavender, Pear, Lemon Verbena and more.

Mmmmm, more.
