

Pampering Ourselves with Lovefresh

30-03-2009

Lovefresh is our just-discovered favourite maker of body products. This brand-new Toronto company was crafting their preservative-, paraben- and petroleum-free body scrubs, lotions and butters in a home kitchen until very recently when demand for the luscious stuff meant a necessary move to a bigger facility.

Topping our list of much-loved Lovefresh treats: The sugar body scrub with coconut oil that moisturizes while it exfoliates and the rich, thick body butter that soothes even the roughest elbows and feet. There are also decadent body washes, lip balms and body bars, too, in irresistible scents like pear, vanilla, rosemary mint, lemon verbena and pomegranate.

Pick up Lovefresh Body Goodies at The 10 Spot, 749 Queen Street West, Sugar Moon, 1509 Danforth Ave., Bubble Pop Beauty, 474 Queen Street East, and other local beauty and spa locations. Visit www.lovefresh.com for more information.
